Evaluation Method (Selection of Successful Applicants)

After the document screening, successful applicants are selected based on comprehensive judgment upon interview evaluation.

A. Admission Criteria: 70 points or more, by adding 50 points for document evaluation + 50 points for interview evaluation

※ Evaluated based on the average value of the interviewers' evaluation scores

B. Evaluation Method: 50% document evaluation + 50% interview evaluation

1) Document Evaluation(50%): 50~30 points are given based on the final academic transcript

Converted to 100 points	80 points or higher	Lower than 80 points ~ 60 points or higher	Lower than 60 points
Document Evaluation Score	50 Points	40 Points	30 Points

※ If there are any missing documents or false facts, the application will be rejected.

2) Interview Evaluation(50%): Evaluated upon separated areas of academic attitude and academic competency

Evaluation Criteria	Evaluation details	Evaluation score
Academic Attitude (25 Points)	Motivation for application and academic plan	25	20	15	10	0
Academic Competency (25 Points)	Attendance status, award history, and overall activity status	25	20	15	10	0

※ If the sum of the evaluation scores in the two areas is 25 points or less, the applicant will be disqualified.

※ Interviews can be conducted through video interviews(non-face-to-face) depending on the situation.

1) Korean Residents: Face-to-face interview(held at designated locations for each department)

2) Non-Korean Residents: Interview at local partner institutions or video interview

C. Important Notes Regarding Interview Evaluation

- 1) Korean resident interviewees must bring their identification card(passport, Alien Registration Card, etc.) on the day of the interview and arrive at the designated location.
- 2) For non-Korean residents, video interviews will be conducted, so the applicant must put in the correct contact number and e-mail address in the application form to receive notification.
- 3) If it is found that an agent took the interview for the applicant, instead of the applicant himself, the admission will be cancelled and admission will not be accepted even after passing.
